PLEIN AIR RULES
“PAINT/PHOTO MACON COUNTY FALL COLOR”
OCT. 19—OCT. 24, 2025

- All entries must be painted during the week of Oct. 19-Oct. 24
- Participants must be at least 18 yo.
- Bring your medium paper or whatever you will be painting on for “entry Mark” to Millikin Homestead at 2 pm Sunday Oct. 19. (if you can’t be there for the 19th, bring your medium surface to the Sessions Oct. 8 or 15)
- Artists will supply their own materials. All mediums are allowed.
- Only sites within Macon County are allowed.
- Entry size can be up to 250 sq. in. plus framing; e.g., 14X17=238.
- Strive for at least 50% of the painting being done at the site.
- Art works need to be ready to hang with wire for the critique and judging. (Hanging will be at 1 pm on Oct. 24 at Madden Art Center (3rd floor))—125 N. Water St., Decatur. Judging will be at 2 pm.
- Tag on entry: Name of piece, location, day, medium, artist, artist experience (Beginner, amateur, experienced). Please include a photo of your site. You may submit up to two pieces.
- All pieces need to be removed at the end of the day, Oct. 24.
- For safety of artists, they are urged to paint with partners or a group. This is also to encourage fellowship among the artists.
- A short note (100 words or less) of what attracted you to paint the piece would be nice, but not required.
- If the proceeds for this event aren’t sufficient to award the stated prizes, the monies will be awarded on a percentage basis. Money in excess of the prize and Judge fee will be added to the treasury.
- By entering this event participants agree to maintain ethical behavior and integrity.
- We do not carry insurance for this event.
